SUMMER MASHUP HITMIX 2026: 28 TRACKS OF PURE SUNSHINE BY V-DJ CASTOR

July 12, 2026

If your Brussels summer needs a soundtrack that feels like dancing on a rooftop until the tram starts running again, V-DJ Castor just dropped one for you (<https://www.instagram.com/steve.wauters>) on mixcloud (<https://www.mixcloud.com/vdjcastor/>).

A queer-friendly summer in one long mix

Summer Mashup Hitmix 2026 pulls together 28 dance, house and feel-good tracks from names like John Summit, Madonna & Peggy Gou, Calvin Harris, Kungs, Lost Frequencies, Tiësto, Bruno Mars and more, and blends them into one continuous, high-energy set. It's the kind of mix that works just as well for getting ready for a night out, driving to the coast, or turning a small balcony into a club for you and your chosen family.

The tracklist leans into mainstream and club pop, but the way it's stitched together feels very club-culture queer: big vocals, emotional drops, hands-in-the-air choruses, plus some harder edges for when you need to sweat out the week. Mashed up transitions keep the energy moving rather than stopping and starting — ideal if you're hosting, cruising, or just trying to stay in your body instead of in your head.

Why it works for our crowd

For LGBTQIA+ and allied listeners, sets like this matter because they offer a low-pressure way to plug into the wider club sound without needing to be in the club every night. You get a snapshot of what's playing in festivals, radios and dancefloors, filtered through someone who clearly loves feel-good, accessible, melodic tracks as much as heavier grooves.

It's also a reminder that queer joy doesn't only live in "official" queer spaces: sometimes it's just you, a few friends, a link to a Mixcloud page and two hours of well-mixed pop and house.
